University...update kthx

Well i am here and this is the first official journal update!!! So far, so (generally) good. Done some stuff which i am not proud of but i think iam doing ok :) oh and Manchester is generally nice as well although lacks the intimate feel of Newcastle. Computer Games Technology is the course and so far im breezing through it soooo easily 11th November i travel to Holland to go to Rotterdam and see the best DJ in the world :) Armin Van Buuren at his 10th anniversary show Armin Only 9 and half hour set from 10pm to 8.30am so hopefully that will be good. Going back up home for my sisters 18th in 1-2 weeks so that will be nice i guess. The only other thing i could wish for atm is obviously for some money but other than that, Luke to use his brains and figure a solution for me to be able to use mirc ;P putty is nice but its no mirc :(im off to play on Bio (et server) so gg and gn :)

Moo

Oh well my mother has gone on holiday and left me with no money : which was considerate of her. Rang the university on Friday to make sure they had received my application stuff back, but the woman I needed to speak to wasnt there so they took my name and number and I will be receiving a call later on today I guess. Got letter from bank saying my account had been upgraded to Student Additions and with it a 200 pound interest overdraft :D, also got news from the accomidation and there is no space left in the halls :(which means private accomidation which can turn out cheaper in the long run I guess but ill sort it later today. I was thinking with this 200 overdraft I dont have enough money to get a new computer (although I could get the account upgraded to 1000) so I was thinking should I just upgrade the laptop for now; from 80GB 4200rpm > 80/100GB 7200rpm 512MB ddr333 (2x256MB) > 1GB stick The laptop is plugged in the majority of the time so the power issue with the new hard drive doesnt matter at all. Another thing PC3200 seems to be cheaper than a PC2700 stick so do i just buy the faster sodimm and run it at a lower speed ? Hmm alot to think about :D Good night for now

Its True

By hours I meant days :P the way it is. I was going to write some big long story but I will cut to the point. My exams results were pretty terrible but I decided to apply to a few universities directly and cut a long story short i am going ^My main choices were going to De Montfort with Ryan or going to Manchester and doing a foundation year, I choose Manchester :x at first and still now I guess my mother isnt too keen on the idea due to the money issues but I sent my accomidation application back today along with my application/reference and i'll try and get finace sorted before I go down there for a opening day on the 6th September.Downloaded Armin Van Buuren - State of trance 2006 couple of nights ago, its really good. Played Elite in the ESL IPS qualifier game earlier on, got beat but not bad for "mix" team I suppose.Student finace/loan = new computer for me though come september ^^

Addication

Wow havent posted in agessss. Em really i dont know what to write about tbh. i'll get the hang of it again. The title is my confession of late i'am really becoming too addicated to ET i mean according to xfire, the 2nd week of my half term (the week which i set aside to do work) i played 50-60 hours of ET, and i didnt get much work done. Anyway off that subject should look embarrassed tbh lol i should have been going out tonight but couldnt get anywhere to stay so i thought why bother, saves some money i would have had to pay back anyway. This week felt me and anya are getting back to the way we used to be so its much more enjoyable being round her, sidenote thanks for buying me my dinner and bringing gatecrasher cd in finally :pAnother slighly worrying or very sweet thing depends how i look at it, seems someone is slighly obsessed with me, im being sweet but i dont know feel like i would be taking advantage of her. Oh well its a problem for another day.

4-0 you must be kidding me

Well yeh we lost what a debut woo4 - 04 - 0Lovely, really - line up was me, laffer1, dutchie. Got a demo from the 2nd match might watch that. I'am putting the loss-es down to lack of practice/coms on my part mainly. Oh well got a match next sunday 3v3 going to practice and Marc asked to be added to the squad, I think we are going for the old FM cb team ie Dutchie, Promo, Evanbraakensiek (killanddie as 4th although he's better than me :p) we have played together and work well, I have ringed for carlos and marc individually as well (and won) so we shall see. Got another new member Gsus (canadian) a very good player who wants to play in cb so dutchie hooked him up to me thanks for that. Even tranix has shown some interest, made a cb account for him anyway. Erm cut wimpie because he is too much effort for not enough skill basically. Anyway, got some info about job, they have a need for waiters/waitresses/dishwashers (then stephen asked if i was over 18, hazel answers yes- oh then he will probably be put behind the bar). Ok i wouldnt mind behind the bar or waiter tbh, half decent money as well. Man U won 1-2 away at Bolton (our bogey team as well woo go us) and i think thats 8 straight premiership wins, think record is 9/10 (held by us unless chelsea broke it last year or arsenal in their 49 unbeaten run) anyway and chelsea drew as well so 7 point gap now we can win LOL, play Arsenal next week urgh maybe not.<http://www.clanbase.com/warinfo.php?wid=5427482>Woo go me im offically a Nations Cup admin (although they is only 5 games left) and a 3v3 Spring Cup admin woo go me, means tomorrow i will be making my ETTV debut in the Germany vs UK match ^^ ah i'll be in the same server as Raz, Ste, Butchji, etc creams himself LMAONight night

All change

Ok, going to be a busy weekend, the ET matches are finally here both of them, talked to a cup admin on irc (has some use i suppose) and no guid is not a forfeit win (damn lol). Enough of ET talk tbh, em will try and get a good majority of my English Language coursework done over the weekend as well as its in for Friday. Um talked to Anya last night, about how've ive been lately and stuff to do with her and why ive been "miserable" lately. I'am changing I think or just contemplating again (rather like at christmas time), although I have little patience or time for some people and just feel like ive screwed up and i would rather be "miserable" and get work done to my standard that be a class clown and fail....again. Jimmy Pringle was talking to my mam about how i should be getting myself up to the middle school on wednesday nights to practice (cumberland wrestling) "wasting his talent", all I can do is sigh from monday i'am beginning to get back on track - Asking about a job in the Newcastle House for a Saturday at least (Money sorted)- Starting to train (weights and general fitness/diet for the summer - cumberland wrestling)- Going to tell Natalie that I fancy her (lovelife sorted)- Attend every lesson from now on (General Studies exception), that means having early nights potentially long periods in the library in between lessons but it must be done. Also start going to maths help classes to ensure i pass, and hopefully get a good mark. (college sorted)- Cut ET down to a maximum of 1 hour per night, weekdays and 10 hours over the weekend, includes ETTV in the time before i whine thats not really ET though. Some half decent news though the darkness that is my sorry state, NHS are offering a similiar thing for cars as they did with computers, so my mam might be getting a car (lots of benefits too many to explain here), if she does then, I will definalty learn to drive as I won't be burdened with 1000 insurance before i even started. Going to see if i can get a hold of my uncle ian early tomorro see if he will lend me some money for a headset or take me away and get my mam to give me some money for a new desk as well. Oh well im off to bed 04.22 is too late to be staying up these days, goodnight to the person i'am, and good morning to the person i want to be....

Hey, u r a fag LOL

Well she wasnt in on Monday so that sucks and loads of people were striking and all the schools were off, so I skived Tuesday as well. Last night finished off the darts competition between Three Wheats Head to decide who represents us in the Doubles competition next week and the singles the week after. I played Jimmy Jackson who had a flawless record up until then and Ann (6th) on this occassion, played awesomely well in the first game against JJ and was finishing within 9 darts (thats really really good) but again my finishing is shit so he kept scoring then hit his double after 2 shots, that was really a kick in the teeth, I needed to beat him if i was going into the singles then to rup salt into the wound I even lost to Ann (im the only regular that managed to lose to the 6th) that was really bad and again double 1 finish, thats the 5th competitive match ive lost on double 1 and 2nd against a women wow LOL, got some free money to buy some drink though so meh. In the last game tom played Jimmy and won so they both got 4/5 and i was the only one to beat Tom (our captain), silver lining ? I did however challenge Jared (kinda) i said by the time next season starts I could beat him (I actually feel i can as well), for only playing like 1/4 of a season most people will agree that I'am a excellent player ^^ roll on next season and good luck to me, Tom, Jared, Jimmy in the doubles next week. Doubles - Cross Keys Jared & Jimmy Me & Tom Singles - Queens Head Michael Tom Was out in Rothbury on monday night, darts/drinking last night, and I'am supposed to be stopping over at Peters Tonight and go to the Farriers - bit too much drinking maybe? Kronenberg Monday lmao Erm what else, i finally got a myspace account after pressure from somebody that messaged me (shared messenger - another stupid thing like msn space) for the first day yesterday called Vikki, Jareds been telling me for a while to get one up as well so why not www.myspace.com/evanbraakensiekErm ET wise im working on the server config (based on SNL) and everything should be sorted by Saturday, 3v3 which we will win by forfeit unless they get some guids registered soon, pays to notice the new rule changes ^^ - usually i would'nt class that as a win but the Sprin Open cups have opened up for registration so I'am trying to get as many games played before the closing date April 9th.

Right yes its very late LOL but me and Tim have decided something, on monday im going to flirt/say something to the girl i like if i get a positive response he will say something to Marii, if i dont get a good response then he wont. However he doesnt read this so im getting a good response anyway :) , although i hope i do get a good response I think i will, going off how she has been acting so far. Im very much liking my new desktop, pure white picture of a digitally made DJ set looks fab. Even uninstalled loads of shit just so it looks nicer. OK Night

At Home Again Today...

As the title says im at home, should be in college really but I actually want to get some work done, been focusing on doing my computing coursework (Second Year) and Ive managed to get a registered copy of FRAPS so I can finally start my English Coursework, which is due in on the 7th (we got a extension). Computing coursework update - Ive finally finished inputting 22 pages of Dance and Electronic-Trance and Techno wow that really did suck imagine if i had to do this as a actual programme. 3316 lines so far and ive got to put in my custom entries (like Tiesto, Armin Van Buuren, Paul Oakenfold, Ferry Corsten etc who appear in the Dance and Electronic-Bestsellers section) stupid really. I estimate about 3500 lines of code (it still technically is code LOL) for the this. I decided to instead of use databases and search (for the searching section of the programme anyway) to use a text file (renames to .ini) and write code which will search this instead. Example of how something is written in DancElectronic-TrancenTechno.ini (filename)aGamesbBBEdTales Of HistorydNew RomanticdSymphonic ParadisedBardAudience And The BirddLe Grande ThemedSeven Days And One Week dUniversal FlashdFlashdFirst LeveldCosmosdDesiredAquatic NebulardFreetimedLe Nouveau MondedRock In The SkydSecond LeveldExita=Album nameb=Artistc=CD number (or double albums/compilations)d=song nameOn the form where the user searches for his/her music they type what they want to search for then select from a combo box (Artist, Album/Complalation, Song)and then when they hit search, classic IF statement saying if combobox1 = Artist then search DancElectronic-TrancenTechno.ini by a You get the picture anyway. Since Im "only" using about 1/7 of the dance music (listed on amazon.co.uk) my search algorithm only has to search through the one .ini file, but in reality if i were to expand this then it would say 10 sections for each genre so maybe upto 100 text (.ini) files so I would try and get the user to choose genre as well to cut down the amount of searching, but I dont have to LOL. After this i have got to try and figure out a payment process and also a update process, where by on the main form the user clicks buy music, then the programme checks a site/server? to see if they are any updates for DancenElectronic-TrancenTechno.ini ie containing new music and if so download and replace the old one, seems simple enough doesnt it ? If i manage to do that then thats 1/3 of the programme done (but the project finished in reality cause the other 2 are extra's), ability to play music and transfer music. Im liking VB2005 kinda cool, much better than VB6 and despite me having to re-learn some stuff and watch videos Im liking it.

Well that went better than expected...

Mmmm ok after getting a lift off my uncle Michael to darts last night, we played some darts but are only half way through so we are deciding who is representiung us in the singles/doubles.As it stands at the momentJimmy Jackson - W3Jared Bell"end" - W2 L1Richard "The Stud" Armstrong W1 L2 Tom "Captain" I - W1Michael "Sexy Boy" Scott - W16th member supposed to be Guy butOk now Despite losing 2 (to michael and Jared - although I should have beaten Michael and I just played pure bad against Jared) I beat Tom without trouble and was on fire didnt even give him a chance to finish, woo me. Although some politics in the car back seems jimmy despite playing 3 and won 3 sigh doesnt want to play in the singles, neither does Jared. This leaves me, Michael, Tom going up for the 2 single spots, already beaten Tom i'am in a strong position for this i should win against the 6th and that leaves a match against Jimmy to make up 3 final points hopefully and michael and Tom have to play each other to for the other spot "HOPEFULLY". Anyway i know for a fact im playing in one of the doubles teams. Jimmy and Jared are making up one team and me + Tom/Micheal as my partner but i cant see this happening as everyone knows im a very good doubles player, even finished last night in 1 dart against Micheal/Tom with Jared. But say i win my other two singles and thus me technically earning my place on the sinlges that leaves either Tom/Michael not competing in either. Hmm ponders LOL ok i have high expectations and im going to be late for computing so bye.

Grins Like A Cat, yet frowns in confusion

Umm day was pretty boring actually didnt get up to go to General Studies, 3 weeks now... Anyway got the 1.40 bus in and was 10minutes early for it!!!! For anyone that knows me this is something unheard of, i even went to the bank (pay johnnathans cash in for resits and my uncle wriote me a cheque to pay for my ebay fees - nice of him) and to the bakery and still 10mins early lol. Ok im not crazy :pGot straight into English, was talking with Natalie seems she and her boyfriend have split as well tries not to smile too much, told her me and Anya had split as well, think she seemed quite suprired and asked "you think you two will get back together? ". Which i said "NO". Mmmmm k LOL was texting Tracey about it, conflict of interest maybe who knows i'm feeling alot if things for people atm and I dont know. Ive got Anya as a friend now but she is no Tracey by a long shot, and I dont know if, sounding very confused here. Anya has left me in a awkward position and Tracey knows all about it so there would be no embarrasment etc but if anything were to happen I would be losing someone i care alot about, so maybe Natalie is the safer option. Im just confused and talking crap.Anyway.... I think the clan stuff has been taking my mind off the whole crappyness of my life (sounding very emo) recently and rolls up sleeve and starts cuts one's self LOL just joking. Here is the team so far Perfection Defined pd/evanbraakensiek (me - english) asgard (ryan - english) ownaholic (adam - english) wimpie (wim - belgian) laffer1 (luke - american) tim (timo - estonian) gangsta (miguel - american) Saturday ive got two 3v3's lined up hopefully at 7pm GMT and 9pm GMT against teams at the bottom/near. Hmm i choose supply depot2 as the map against the first clan and brandorf in the 2nd match. I want everyone who turns up to play and adam has already said he doesnt want to play all the matches which is goodevanlaffer1 tim thats the line up for the first game me thinks depends how badly we beat them on our map (ill ask to play fiirst) ill start to move in subs, asgard and wimpie if they show up. Mmm we shouldnt have any problems [END ET TALK] Last Tuesday was the last darts match of the season, tomorrow night though we having a competition at the 3 wheats to decide who is going to represent us in singles/doubles for the upcoming competitions. Tom also spoke last week of getting the Thropton and Rothbury pubs to make a summer league to keep us sharp for next season. Seems like a good idea and I wouldnt have to travel far either. Well my only chance tomorrow is as being a doubles partner which means i have to hit high scores not necceserly finish which is what has happened for the last 2 doubles matches matches ive played and won woo lol. OK good luck richard you'll need it.

ST Patricks Day

I felt Anya deserved her own post tbh so thats why i made a seperate one. Friday night ok i gave in and finally went out with Jared, in Morpeth. Was very disappointed that Tracey couldnt come havent been out with her before either but soon enough. Anyway Friday morning-afternoon meh doesnt matter, left early ie skipped maths last lesson so i could get home earlier. Anyway after loads of crap, i ended up missing one bus, was still in the house so wasnt sweaty or crap like that. Ok was standing at bus stop and George comes and starts waiting ok i can handle that he is a nice guy and used to be friends with him. He wont be going to the Red Bull anyway. Just as the bus pulls up, Leanne walks up, ah man she looked so hot. Remembering why i fancied her to start with, but i know she has a bf (and has had for a while now). Makes my way down to the red bull after the intital "woo shit its armstrong" got myself some drinks and settled straight back in. Night goes on, meet some new people (at Black Bull) play and win a game of Pool (doubles with adam russell) beat ben (aggressive cunt when he gets beaten lmao) and nigel (ha you fat chink :p) then me and jared went to the Waterford cause it was the only place that still had gusiness hats. Didnt stay there long made our way back to the Red Bull through The Black Bull again even sat with leanne and some others, most of them talking about how much ive changed (nothing said between me and leanne though hmm) and turned hot!! LOL some of the girls i was talking to (who had turned pretty hot themselves) said you used to be short and cocky now though you hot and really nice richard blushes at this point and they laugh and say see. Despite hints and flirting i just wasnt interested in "pulling" or getting of with anyone at that point. I sent some pretty dumb messages which i regret. Overall though a very good night with company who actually like me for me and not because i was Anyas bf. Anyway after a long (for jared anyway) lift back his mum now knows he has a gf called siobon lmao oooooops :) and i think, will get confirmation tomorrow whether or not i kissed his mum as well LOL drink + richard = nice

Anya

Hmm ok, start alot of posts with that, prehaps me finding the best way to put down things I suppose. Ok, this will be the hardest post ive ever made or will it. Talking about the whole Anya thing, im not going to talk about reasons why we broke up because in truth I dont know, reasons are shit tbh. No matter how much i sugar coat my dissapoinment im still disppointed and angry and very embarrassed about the whole thing because no matter what unless I divulge details to people i always will be regarded as the bad guy after what happened at Simons Party. Most if not all of her "friends" probably do question why she ever went out with me in the first place, so support from them was as you can imagine few and far between, with exceptions of course but not enough. She was the best and worst thing that has happened to me I can say that truthfully, i learnt to love something other than myself which of course is a good thing. But the frustration and anger i felt at times with her was just too must. I was constantly put into situations where she knew i would be uncomfortable/not like them and despite this nothing changed, i would bite my toungue and not say anything and then be called miserable or told to cheer up. I gave alot and recieved nothing, that didnt bother me, such is how i felt about her. She just doesn't learn at all in regards to things or some peoples motives. She will continue to be taken advantage of and will feel miserable but she chooses this (read coward) and she will never find happyness until she learns to appreciate her self-worth and know she is better than cough but tbh not my problem any more. I'am not going to fight for her anymore, im worth more and dont deserve to be treated how I have been. Something has been stolen from me and i'am feeling very angry, does make me wonder why I excised such self control to start with and being a gentlemen, really it wasnt worth it and now i have to suffer. I hope she feels happy, cause she found a guy who actually who did treat her how she deserved and respected her both as a friend and girlfriend. 1 piece of advice im going to give which will be ignored, whoever you end up with next please dont talk about you previous bf's at all, your a good looking girl but this has been the main reason youve been getting bf's not because of your personality, this sounds very harsh but it comes down to you learning selfworth stop giving yourself so cheaply, learn to say no.Thank you for everything you've help me become.

Oh well

Oh well the last 3 days have kinda sucked for 3 different reasons

Sunday - Not so much bad news but i found out ive got a half sister called Emily, mmmm ok.

Monday- Got my results they suck

Tuesday- Me and Anya are finished meh nothing much to say about that at the moment, decided to still go to darts and payed my bar tab off overall a pretty crap start to a week but my mam is being nice despite me spending the money she gave me for shoes on drink. Mam knows best indeed.

(no subject)

I draw my strength from you, my passion from you but my anger seems to be inspired by you, my fury unleashed upon whom you hate. - Current MSN Nickname thing Meh thought it was a cool thing to mention. Anyway weekend was kinda boring did nothing basically, today was results day for the exams we took back in January, meh kinda sucky results tbh honest did better in my resits but not much better. Means ive i re-take more exams to get the results i know im capable of then i have the prospect of doing maybe 12+ exams in the summer for 3 subjects sigh. Taking ryans advice on this one, for every hour I game, do 1 hours revision. Anyway met Anya outside my english class she was talking to Andy, then Amanda came as well, all talking about Friday night - wasnt out on Friday so just smile and don't look stupid lol. She decided to wait for me and after another good English class (thanks natalie) i walked with Amanda and Anya back to haymarket, wooooo can either of them get anymore miserable. While listening to music on the bus home i got a message which kinda has me worried tbh, although I dont know if its what i think it will be about then that will give me a excuse (very unspecific here to protect myself) as im kindanot feeling what i used to, or never did - i think i deserver better."Can i speak to u 2moro, there are reasonz ive been down but wud prefer to talk in person. u need to kno. coz it aint fair on both of us. xXx"

Progress..slow but progress

Been going to CGZ alot recently and playing new games, but my heart is still with ET.

Right i decided to try and make the www.pdclan.co.uk site on the bus to college today - lol it looked crap. Inside of using the template i decided on i needed a very job done, and used Front Page. The site (new one i been doing tonight) looks very very simple but looks really nice in my opinion even better when more content is added (some reason the text box on the main page looks crappy in firefox but the rest of the site looks fine). I've registered us with CB and hopefully we will be accepted tbh i cant see why they wouldnt. Even had the cheek to post on our site who will be our first 3 opponents in 3v3 and 2 in 6v6 thanks how confident i'am. Hopefully some of the other players i asked will join so we will have some very capable players in pd/ otherwise i will have to continue to search and train up prospective members hmm.

Also found out about Electronic Sports League may consider entering us into this as well, need to reseach it further. I dont think many of our players will want to play in twl because of the ping [sorry luke :)] not sure about CAL/STA yet either. Havent looked into CAL at all and I think STA may be abit too high for us to start in, although i know all of the teams who compete in it.

If we get accepted means the servers will need to be sorted with maps and configs etc. Also need to find best time for everyone to practice. Ah the life of CL :P

Rags and Riches

Well now that the weekend is over and indeed monday for that matter, im feeling alot better now - still havent seen anya since ummmmmm last wednesday i think but have been texting her, the break has probably done us both the world of good - me at least it has. I didnt do much over the weekend so not much to report, i did manage to snot through most of the vb.net tutorial videos which im glad lol. Today hmm everyone was up in the Armstrong house, lol well for abit I just went back to sleep :) Got into Newcastle for 11.55 and ran straight to the gate, the film I wanted to watch started at 11.45 got there for 12 sigh hmm decision time watch The Weatherman at 12 or go see Date Movie at 1. We went to see date movie cause ryan was hungary and we wanted to play at CGZ for abit. After getting way too much cheap food (got to love eldon food) and treating ryan to greggs we played Unreal Tournament 2004 cause the only 2 PC's that have ET (2.55 and PUB lol) were been updated and neither of use fancied COD2. I really do rape at Unreal lol I played the GOTY edition but i expected a big change nope - had me, ryan, and tim playing with bots and i raped them both haha only lost 2 of 7 games woo me :P Umm Date Movie was shit tbh only had a few good jokes and way too many paradies seriously lazy writers. Went back to CGZ for another quick game and turned up to English late but 2 hour lesson so meh. Im really starting to like English again no small part to Natalie and Jack lol mainly Natalie, she's a really nice "lass" today involved us describing/drawing our perfect partners and i found out we have similiar tastes in things ie BMW's yummy and my taste in men seems to be pretty good as well lmao. I really do like when girls get/do embarrassing things ah man its great, with the leftover sweets (lolli pops) from Ryan i gave some to Natalie and Simon and when i was talking to her she stoppped and went to pull out her lolli pop out her mouth to say something when spit/drool came from her mouth/lolli and landed on the desk ah man she was embarrassed - I just smiled and said it was alright. Seems her bf said he loves her and also managed to offend her in the same text (wtf) as well so we both had a laugh about that. Oh well got home after eating monster munch to death on the bus lol. Done nought basically all night i think apart from watch South Park and Del Boy/Rodders :) had a quick game of ET on the stats box bah i sucked even had some of former clan FM there to encourage me. Yes former clan, i'am no longer in FM and deciding that playing in Clanbase was more important than TWL atm i made my own clan pd/ (Perfection Defined?)

Good, bad and the plain embarrassing...

OK havent wrote in a while. UPDATE time.

Holidays

Tuesday Night - I did manage to play my uncle in the singles adn played very well considering. We lost 7-5 overall which is very good. Got nice and tipsy as well so did Anya, that night shall be known for many good reasons not just the darts ;) wooh holly eating the hamster lol.

Wednesday - Consequence of what happened on Tuesday had to go to hospital wednesday.

Thursday - Spent the day with Anya again and stayed over at her grandparents, also went to the cinema in the evening. Saw Casanova what a great film lol i enjoyed it more than Anya.

Friday - Ummm went into college to do some work but didnt last long, dedecided to go and see Lucky Number 7leven - very good movie with Anya and Ryan then took Anya to the bus station and then went with ryan to get kebabs (lol they english was great - lack of it) then to CGZ for abit of gaming then he gave me a lift back to morpeth for my 10.35 bus home.

Saturday - Simons and Dougs 18th bithdays, hmmm this day will not go down as a good day for the consequences of what i'am learning i did at simons party. Despite having fun at the time i upset alot of people and did some stuff im not proud of.

Most of this week ive been off, with monday the only day i went to all my lessons, partly to do with what happened on Saturday sigh. Choose not to go out last Night with Jared/Siobon + others. This is possibly the only time i feel bad for my actions and upsetting people which will shock alot of people.

My msn description basically tells how i feel atm - falling from heaven (use of metaphorical sense obviously)

Silence and the Wool

Hmm ok the 6v6 we lost (i think) i stepped in for Nick after the first map which was a confidence booster considering how good he is, and I played really really well on the first map and showed why i'am in FM, second map meh not so good but i dont play it often.

Right on Thursday something happened which put me in a very very bad mood, despite making up that night it spilled over into Friday as well. After Maths on Friday i went to pick up a drunken(well tipsy) Anya from The Dog and Parrot and went to meet Doug (woo) and Tracey who were already inside. When we were coming out saw Jared and Siobian going in, when we were leaving I said to Anya Siobian looks much nicer in real life than of the photo's I have seen of her.....Sigh what a stupid thing to say kinda ruined the night when Anya cold shouldered me and then decided not to stay over. Were sorted now and she is staying over tomorrow night and coming to Darts (see throughs that tbh) so i will be nervous and on top of that im playing Crosskeys A team and thus my uncle Michael sigh not really in the mood to get my ass handed to me on a plate tbh. Im going to get smartly dressed up and enjoy myself (as best as one can under the situation)...Bye

ET par say

Right this is the boring type of post as far as Anya is concerned. Ok FM by FM I mean Oly, Nate, Angela choose to have a massive clear out of members 11 in total were kicked in preparation for the beta season starting in a couple of weeks. The number of euros is dangerously low at 2 now - me and carlos hmmm, wasn't particularly happy about Mark being kicked to be honest. But apart from that most of the others were jutisfied. Over the weekend we played Fg in a 3v3 (4v4 in reality as porthos came into the server) it was supposed to be practice for Clanbase match on Tuesday but clearout over weekend resulted in our 3rd member being kicked so we are no longer going to be taking part in CB any more. Forgot to mention we won 3-0 (sorry luke :p)

Anyhoow onto today, went to pizza hut with Jonathan and then went to computing as per normal but met Tracey/Doug on way abck and Tracey wanted me to go to the pub when my lesson finished but when i told Anya bout it basically mean i would be leaving her on her on so i stuck with myhuni instead. Tried my hardest to look as gay as possible with kiki's scalf think its working lol but im hiding it from my sis who was getting off smelling it lol (Jean Paul Gautier smell tis why). On the way home Tracey got on the bus and was absolutly pissed as a fart, so i walked up the chinese (still closed) with her in the pouring rain then we went to the co-op and I choose some food for her and then walked her very very very slowly home - im a nice lad after all. Decided im going to go to See Final Desination 3 again on Friday night and go to Franky and Benni's as well (never been before) with Anya + Tracey + (Hopefully Doug but he might be working so will be replaced with some random male so Anya wont feel jealous/paranoid or ought). Off to hopefully play in 6v6 match now later.

Playing Catch Up

Oh well thanks to laffer for making updates to the system.

Right as much as I can remember/time to write here how its goes. Right went to the dentist and after some work everything is nice now and no pain. Last Friday went ice skating and then went for drinks (pretty good going considering I had no money, my computing teacher paid for my ice skating and Anya/Jordan paid for my drinks wo ok). Weekend I did nought but sleep as far as I can remember. Monday ok during the day I wenty to see Final Destination 3 with Ryan (Anya angrily looks at me now LOL - I'll go with her sometime as well). Monday night I played darts (with new freshly delivered and supernice darts) since Tuesday was Valentines so we got the match moved since 3 of the team wouldnt be able to play well 2 since Michael dumped his girl over the weekened LMAO. Got realllllly frustrated when i didnt win my singles so got drunk lol.

Hmmm my valentines - My plan was to have Anya (GF) over at my house (no one else there) and run her a bath and have candles (scented) lit round the bath and have some chillout music play while she relaxes. While downstairs i would be cooking from scratch a lovely meal and when that is done she comes out of the bath and puts on warm dressing gown. Then we eat meal together and then move on to desert (either strawberry/whipped cream or ice cream - probably the first). Then later on after that is finished i read her a poem i wrote and then give her a nice massage. Then i didnt have anything else planned.

What actually happened was my mother said no she isnt stopping over (she uses my attitude as a reason and she tries to teach me a lesson) i beg and she still says no - ok my plan is ruined hmm. We ended up going for a chinese as a group of 8 (us 2 and 6 singles, LOL) and then we went and got drunk basically in gay bars until we had to leave. I was allowed to stop over at her grandparents (who she livesd with) but in seperate beds and rooms for that matter. Oh well i was kinda miserable until I had a chat with one of the gays and he kinda picked me up and made me feel better and once ive had enough alchol im happy and willing to be nice to anyone (if you havent spoke to me when im drunk i advise you to do so its great :p) and it was a good night.

I didnt buy any presents or cards (neither did she), but i payed for her meal and all but maybe 1/2 drinks and was nice later on if you know what i mean :)

Ok im off to class now, later....

Sunshine on a cloudy day

As I lye here on the sofa listening to music on the laptop through ipod headphones LOL just feel like writing, but have nothing to say, hmm always the way. Well my mam rang up the dentist after I realised I would be in a exam when my appointment was due so I have gotten a cancellation and now its tomorrow so hopefully no were near as much pain now, although I'am becoming more tolerant of it.

Forgot to mention that I persuaded carlos and marc to rejoin Clanbase so I should be playing regular 3v3 and wooh my uncle just bought the dartboard/darts wooh - easily pleased.

Hmmm in a state of deep thought

Just noticed how my subject titles are always really cool :p

Okay monday went to see Brokeback Mountain with Ryan, hmm very very very slow start always wondered to myself why I had chosen to see it, but kept with it and turns out to be hmm well not sure the only movie I can comfortably compare it to is Crash but thats not doing justice to either film. The title reflects what I think of the movie ie not sure it's one that you will have to go and see yourself and for once im not going to critise/praise a movie to others.

Tuesday and Wednesday for the love of god i didn't think my mouth could get worse but it just does especially Wednesday. I'm such a bastard when im ill as well I get so angry for no reason, had a quick feel and it seems both my bottom set of wisdom teeth are coming through not just the right side and i have to wait a week for a emergency dentist oppointment sigh but what can I do.

Slight up played darts again seems like I'm probably playing full time for them now so thats good. Of course we got beat (opponents are best inleague) but on a high note i got the 3rd highest score with the first throw of the match, wooh me but got thrashed in my singles lol and narrow defeat in the doubles team games only the first was close after my good start. Hmm so I think that leaves Jared, Tom winning they singles and maybe Old man and Jared winning they doubles cant remember.

Good night all

Follow The Winds That Follow The Rain

LOL lyrics from Armin Van Buuren - Satellite.

Hmm okay

Tuesday 10th - Maths (predication- Failed and badly)

Wednesday 11th - English (predication - hmm if i got a U the first time then ive done better but if i got a C in this one then probably worse)

Friday 13th - Computing (CPT1 - Hmm aced :) CPT2 [only 2 of us retaking it] alright no overly confident though) Okay boring part over, what else has been happening scratches chin well Anya and I have gotten bit more serious (L word involved - does that scare me not at all I already knew she did :) lmao) and some stuff has been happening at home which isnt so pleasant (for her not me) and she has/in the process of moving out to her grandma's.

"Ah wow non squeaky bed =p! im going 2 sleep wishin u were here 2 hug n kiss n fall asleep wit u holding me! i love u so much n wana b wit u 4eva nite my love xxx" Anya - 15/01/2006 01:01

Good News For A Change

LOL well i after I kept my end of the bargain by going to bed early and giving Peter some sleep lmao he is keeping his by bringing all the music over so step 1 of the music project is complete

- Programme needs written
- Johnathan needs to find a hosting company
- Need to find a cool name for the project and domain

The bad thing of me going to bed before midnight means i couldnt sleep whatso ever i think i slept from 1.30-2.50 then like 6.30-9 then till 11 or something but as always myhuni is just as bad as me and we lay in bed (not in the same bed - shame) and texted each other until the wee hours quite interesting really but i think i scared her to death with the last text lol came out complety wrong as per usual.

Resoulations

What has really changed...

I have but I dont how, from school to college something happened for the worse in my opinion and I cant quite put my finger on it. Just sitting here thinking about New Year Resoulations got me thinking about life in general, myself and things that have happened/happening right now. To be honest I dont like how things have turned out but is it too late to change I dont know - I hope not.

I think from now on im going to follow my own beliefs and become what i'am capable of becoming both physically and mentally. Before moving off into realms of my beliefs and other various novelaties, I'll stop.

For now ill keep my resolutions to myself but unlike others I will keep mine...

Christmas and the works...

Your probably thinking how has he got time to post on christmas day of all days but meh I dont open my presents/eat until the afternoon when my mam gets back. Anyways last friday- Tuesday was certainly eventually for good and bad reasons but shall not mention here cries because of the embarrassment. Anyway this is probably the last you will hear of me as of tomorrow im offically in revision mode

3X Computing (13th, 13th, 24th)

1X English Language (11th)

1X Maths (10th)

Lovely and on top of that ive yet to finish my UCAS application - lovely indeed.

So while I sit back waiting for my bath to finish, bit early to contemplate on whether 2005 was a good year or not but i'll give it a shot. Mixed blessings really from people dying (RIP David)to meeting Anya (and Andy LMAO - Watching that video cheers me right up :P), to getting new things,turning 18, from being ill and accepting that ive got scottish cousins with scottish accents shudder (so cute till they open their mouths). On the whole a pretty ok year, made better from November onwards.

The cousins/auncle/aunty are coming down tomorrow so ill probably go out for a drink but apart from that nothing to look forward until new year which I'll hopefully spend with myhuni - hope everyone has a wonderful christmas and a happy New Year. LOL the electricity went off while writing this so took like 5 mins longer than it should have - story of my life meh. Baths finished now so im going to fall asleep in they and let others worry a about the dinner - I managed to burn (and ruin)a non-stick non burnable pan while making the custard last night LMAO, Later people....

How nice

Oh well seems Fg dediced against me staying thats ok I guess.Rights Friday night was supposed to go and meet anya's mam + terry, well thats didnt happen we got they and bev was upstairs. Her and terry had falling out, and she didnt come down all night. Best part was saturday mornign though she was up bright and early and texted anya while we where still in bed staying you got 10mins get up and get dressed i want you out of the house. WTF, she came back to the house and she gave anya bankcard and said draw out, get some nice, go the to cinema or something just be out the house (terry was coming over). So i actually did meet her (Hi, Hi - thought tht went went pretty well LMAO) . So we went to Mc Donalds for breakfast and i meet rachael a friend of anyas who worked they and she was nice. We (andrew as well) went to newcastle for the rest of the day and went to see Narnia - verdict pretty alright film maybe a tad too childish but the battle scenes were quite good. Anyhoow got back and she was out and I didnt see her all the time i was they :(- stopped over for the saturday night as well. In all it was a pretty good weekend apart from my illness which is getting worse and is the reason why i'am off now - the dentist wasnt open so im going to see the doctor at 4.50 so he/she will confirm that im on deaths door LOL :p

Mixture really...

Quick note to say that I have formely joined FM clan, very happy about this on a slighty sour note Man U lost 2-1 to Benfica, this i'am really pissed about finishing bottom of our group and thus no more european football all season is something we man u fans are not used to. Real Madrid went through a similiar thing a couple of years ago even now really so i hope this is only a blip, unfortunalty im sure that our ranking and top group seeding will also slip as well.

@Raven

Right were should i start yes as i stated you can of all people post whatever you want in your journal. 1.Well i have tried in the past to show im not sexist, but i guess ill just have be content with your opinion. Other option is you talk to anya, your choice really.2.Yes i'am cocky but this is not just due to my age, but my ability in everything i do (ie never been bad at any sport i have tried) and yes i know this is cocky in its self but i guess i agree with you on this point.3.Hmm, im not sure on this if you are suggesting this based on how i behaved with young-gun.app the maybe, otherwise this is totally unfounded as I have myself recruited people with higher skill levels than many members in the clan.4.Hmm recently i would agree with you, but this is also because im alot busier and often have to do many things at once and sometimes ET isnt the most important. The majority of the time the rest of the Fg members dont even challenge me so this is often the case, if however say i got alot of players of high quality to come to a Fg practice then I would definatly try but i feel this would be off putting to the rest of the members (in laymans terms - having their asses handed to them on a plate), about the clan thing they is some truth in that.5.The simple matter here is i had possible the shittiest time to try and get home to actually play the match and missed going to a party to play in the match in the first place, so I admit i couldnt be bothered. The other fact is that i knew we would get beaten and badly, "it is better for people to think your bad than to know your bad" - my saying, I knew i was outclassed 1v1 against their leader and couldnt make up the difference. They was only 1 prize ever, and you probably forgot that i did all the work in organising and talking to other clans for all of the Fg teams not just mine. Also it seems they we are going to get the server anyway thus defeating my lack of effort throughout the match, and if you judge things on outcome alone then this well done evan for entering Fg and getting us (Fg) a server sigh. You are entitled to say what ever you want and however you which to address or comment about me (which ever is easier) then that is your choice. Your Tue journal - They made offensive posts in the forums, which kami got rid of, and my reaction was extreme yes but wholly justified.

Should I put more detail in ?

Seem to be posting less and less recently but covering more stuff so i guess thats ok. Right what has happened since last entry. To be honest i cant actually remember that much.

I know i was off on thursday cause i slept in past 10am so regardless i wouldnt be getting EMA.

Friday ummm some how i managed to miss the bus i dont know how though but i nearly bust a gut running after it, ran like half a mile in a minute then walked back up home, damn my sister not going to work until 9am she saw me - well i was sitting on the sofa watching friends :)

So I got later bus so i would still go to computing and maths, but i missed 2 english things (talk with craig about my resits - head of english language) and talk with gordan (one of my lecturers) about my report, but spoke to them later on so its ok i guess. Anyhoow got into newcastle after anya persering me on the bus with texts ;) , the lazy mare didnt even come up to haymarket to meet me psh (another one of your bad habits i picking up). Had to walk down to starbucks urgh to meet her but went to bank first wooh i got ema :) met my lovely and simon/jordan where with her as well, quick walk talking about music and crap, went into switch (yes okay i got it right first time - keep getting the names mixed up), stayed in they until computing then we walked up even though they was just me, anya, ryan cause of some business thing.

Sorted some stuff out then went upto Eclipse before maths, bastard bar man wouldnt serve mer even though i had my student ID card with my DOB, we dont accept those you need your passport or driving license as well - grumble as he drinks his coke without vodka.

I cant believe how uncomfortable it was at times in they, went in and they was the lesbian crying (gay bar after all) cause her ex girlfriend had bought her a present, she took this as she is trying to be bought back - now ladies seriously just chill out the same kinda thing happened yesterday (sunday) with kelly mention later on.

Met some random peeps i never knew before and some where nice even this gay lad who i keep forgetting his name but i bought him a drink [if you know me then this is a big thing a) buying a drink, b) for a gay] but he was ok, even talked to philpa for abit and some guy anya later said wasnt nice but seemed ok to me about him nearly being stabbed earlier that day (security guard). Had to go to maths, and carol (lecturer) for the first time ever felt brave enough to ask me a question i just sat they mind blank going meh, was like the easiest question as well - lovely. Came out and got text that they had changed back to switch, i wanted to go back to eclipse cause they got a pool table :(oh well i had like 40 mins until i had to go and get my bus so i had 3 drinks in like 10 mins to make up for it :)

Had a lovely conversation in which anya cant remember saying something she shouldnt have cause well she shouldnt i guess (cough). Walked to the gate with anya and kelly then they left me to get bus and they went to franky and benni's for food. Got on the bus and talked with tracey and philipa was they pissed as a fart :) walked up home with tracey then i quickly ran home to go the toilet/get some money for fish and chips + curry sauce while she waited at the chip van on the way back a car drove up so i had to jump on the grass and subsequently (due to drinking too much in such a short time) i fell on my arse and skidded :) my leg hurt so bad and i couldnt feel my knee what so ever but the vodka numbed the pain and i got straight back up Continue later i got to go to General Studies with my lovesome waiting :)

Sigh* Fills another glass

Friday - No sleep at all best not to got to sleep at 4.30am/5.00am cause of past experiences, so was still in good mood on friday morning. Blah boring stuff, went ice skating with ryan in my 2 hour gap after computing and before maths. It was great, after some initial getting used to the skates then i just showed off a bit, then anya and simon came and watched the "skillz" LMAO Anya waited 2 hours well 1, well i dont know how long but she took simon up to haymarket then came back to college and waited until i finished maths. We then went for a chinese (quite suprised at cost) and then went to see SAW2 cough-again but it was worth it just to be with her. Now this is the gods honest true i didnt plan this, but how i'm supposed to get a bus from morpeth to rothbury when they are no buses from 9-10pm on a friday night - conclusion i missed my bus i had to stay at anya's :) Saturday - Well since i stayed at anya's it made it near on impossible for me to got to gay richards party (phew - dont hit me), well morning/afternoon = brave me :) Well got into newcastle at like 4.30 and the plan was to get the 5.30 bus from morpeth to home bus it was running cause its only runs during the week so i basically payed 5 pound to get from newcastle to morpeth and meant i was kinda stuck ne money left and no more arriva busses bollocks so i tried to ring my uncle to pick me up so my mam wouldnt find out, he was at my house and told her straight away - crap anyhow long story cut short another uncle picked me up . By the time i got back 7.30/7.45 the FM final was sceduled for 8 got that slightly delayed to 9 so i could have a little practice, to be honest i couldnt be bothered and started drinking, the drink is no excuse for my performance in the final i just didnt try what so ever and Pytox/Laffer and FM know this. Sunday - Got up at 5.30pm can t remember nowt else. Monday - Entry too long as it is so ill just say what im doing now - lying naked in bed talking to anya as she demands to see more flesh :)

Webcam antics

Okay yesterday was alright, during the day anyway. Had Anya bugging me for kisses and cuddles all day ;) what a struggle. Alison even payed for my pizza hut wooh nice. Got home and watched Training Day and Man On Fire, great films now i feel like crap cause i drank a whole glass full of vodka with nothing else and it destroyed my throat man i feel like crap. I was lying on the sofa with my durvey and i fell asleep while on webcam to Anya :) it was like 3am so cant blame me. Anyway i woke up at 4am and found the webcam (which was balanced on the top of the sofa) under me and digging into my spine - argh so went to bed and now have bad back today.

Sick to death

Ah reet up at 6am this morning for english language at 9. Its bordering on snowing in Rothbury which is pretty nice (but cold).

Turns up like 30mins late cause bus was late, and finds paper on door telling us to go and pick up work from sixth form office :0 right that is sickening is get up at 6 to be told to pick up worksheet, OMFG im going to kill somebody - probably lee in computing with a spoon :)

Sat with Johnathan in the canteen until he had physics(sidenote - the coke machine didnt give me my coke, i can feel the urges to start killing again 1 pound wasted (sidenot to laffer - pound sign doesnt work in journal?)

arrgaharagaharghrgharhagahar [5mins later]) Ok im fine now

Got maths in 30mins time (maths lecture = sleep) then im going to get grub with anya meh silver lining i suppose.

Also on the bus my friend Jared said he aint going to rugby practice tonight because a) he got darts b) the pitches are frozen - dont know if this is a good or bad thing, suppose it means i wont be dead for tomorrow - tomorrow = my 18th.

Yesterday...

Well yesterday was industrial action (teacher strike) at college. So i had the day off, but anya had to go in for English from 9-10 so I went into Newcastle to spend the day with her. She met me off the bus at haymarket and she got to meet my sis at same time since she had day off work as well.

Anyhooooooow we went to see cinema times and i picked a film for us to see, but I showed my cheapness by going to Wilkinsons to buy drinks and sweets :) (although she payed half since it was like buy 2 for or something like that). Anyway we go to the cinema and she hands me money i thought it was just money for her ticket cause im pretty poor at the moment or I would have payed (gentlemen honest :). Nah it wasnt twas money for both of us, so i payed using that and tried to give her money for my half but she refused. How cool is that a women paying for you :) i did say i would only offer her the money once, and she still refused (im not bothered about taking money from women, cause ive done it for 17 years so why stop now?)I choose to see The Brothers Grimm and it was good made better by the fact sexy anya was sitting next to me but meh :) After that we went for a quick something to eat at greggs (her choice) then the rest of the day consisted of us wandering, anya using her leg to try and dry a seat :), being confused why any one actually goes to the baltic (seperate note - i did notice you get kinda nervous when the group of female art students came and sat on our table - just be glad i didnt do what i was thinking :0) . Some random wandering round eldon square and the quayside then me listeninig to random music on her/your ipod , not to mention me being sprayed by her perfum (it smells so nice even sprayed my hoody for the journey home :). It was a nice but cold day made better cause i was with you :), and i now have a new defination for you, but thats for another day.

Sigh

TRUST - Firm reliance on the integrity, ability, or character of a person or thing. Reliance on something in the future; hope. One in which confidence is placed. JEALOUSLY - Fearful or wary of being supplanted; apprehensive of losing affection or position. Vigilant in guarding something: We are jealous of our good name. LOVE - A deep, tender, ineffable feeling of affection and solicitude toward a person, such as that arising from kinship, recognition of attractive qualities, or a sense of underlying oneness.

This week

wednesday - left my phone on the bus on the way back from newcastle. Turns out the woman that was sitting behind me picked it up, she was from pegswood and she rang most people on my phone and thankly natalie (sister) rang back. The only reason i mention this is because it was 518 (bus) ie goes to alnwick where i grew up, and i wouldnt have returned it put it that way.

thursday - went to pick my phone up from hairdressers in morpeth. Instructions my sister give me were'nt the best and went into the wrong one at first then eventually go the right one. Was quite funny walking in and disappointing a group of hairdressers with my overgrown (but stunning) blonde barnet :)

Spoke to anya until wee hours (again) and talked/solved a few problems.

friday - as a consequence of talking to anya until 4.30/5am then a quick game of Call Of Duty 2 until 5.30am, went to bed for 30mins sleep for some reason. I slept in and missed Tutorial and english wooh, got a swift thump from the mother but meh. Im sure the woman at College knows my name by now as she is always the same one that answers the phone when i ring in :)

So i got into newcastle, and got to sit next to anya in computing which was nice and even did some word association, noises that animals make, and a diagram of me killing lee with a spoon because i was bored.

Had maths last lesson and did nothing but text anya until my credit ran out so flipped through a revision book to look like i was doing work :)

Met ryan to see SAW2 and was actually pretty good, much beter than i was expecting anyway. The best was the bus back home though - they was a double decker and like 5-10 people on it so why they hell is they 2 charvs sitting within 2 seats of me and they didnt know each other as well. One was a retard who had been drinking and was like 4 '3 and had size 5 feet (he told me) with pierceings and the other kinda looked my age and was smoking (trying) weed on the bus. I was like WTF but it was great, the retard even said my grey Bench cargo pants were nice :) Put me in a good mood then listened to some beats on the way back to Rothbury then chatted to people on msn/xfire.

saturday - Rolled out of bed at 3pm (catch up on some on the sleep anya's been depriving me of :))Then got dressed and watched the england vs argentina match which was some of the best football i seen in a while and specially proud of my own wayne rooney (man u player) who got a goal and hit the post and basically was playing awesome. Didnt get to see the second half cause of the FM tournament match which is a shame but.. Anyway i learnt to multi task (very badly though) and play ET, watch anya on MSN video, talk to people on MSN/Xfire and listen to music at same time. Was great and even spoke/sang to some of the guys on ventrilo wooh :) We got through on a technically again but meh Im in the finals, yes laffer thats me Im in the finals and i do spell team with a I its tiem :)

Crappy

Well after Anya kept me up talking till 4.30am (was supposed to get up for 6), so i got an hour's sleep after she made me got to bed (isnt she nice). End result me nods off in the bath again :). It was pouring down with rain again and only had a t-shirt on and the bus was late, so I get to english and the classroom is empty and nothing stir's im like okay now im frustrated and im not feeling too good on top of that. Bah the title ssays it all.

Somebody stop that biatch....

7:53 PM - Minor security update

I did a slight security update to the server. Damn, that upgrade felt good. Wow, someone once said he didn't have a problem with me having root.

I only know understood what she meant, it seems she has starting a partisian war with me. Casualities sustained so far lose of foolishgames email account and lost of admin status on ET sever. Hold it now someone stop that biatch before she does something really bad like, um, yes, um yes what could she do ? What she doesnt know though will find out is that this Fg is smarter than she thinks, a plan has already been thought of. Good look Cayrn you will need it.

100 minute war

A tough and bitter fight this has been with Raven, a good rival she has been but despite her wicked tongue and foul opinions the beast (literally) has been beaten and she returns with her forked tongue back to the cave she came from.

Evan pooooooooowns Raven, long live evan :)

Comtemplating Defeat

Last night was the first time Ive been beaten in ET (Under Fg) and by FMG (all girl clan).

Defeat wasn't so bad and showed how much work they still is to do. Im getting better but still no where near good enough.

Friday was one of my best days in ET and even was approached by someone instrested in joining Fg just cause I owned everyone on the server going into saturday i was optimistic we could roll FMG over.

How wrong I was, my aim was so off i couldnt have played worse even if i tried. This is not to take anything away from the girls, they played like pros and I was impressed by their teamwork but I felt I let Fg down.

Times are changing now though, not satisfied with going into a random server and owning people im know choosing to play in pro servers against all clan members/leaders where for the first time in a while, i have more deaths than kills. Im also starting to play with alot of FM clan members including the leader of FME (Europe division) Carlos and even running his config. I will learn from this and become better, but will Fg ? Whom might have done this to teach me a lesson, wow im getting paranoid.

People who love me, like me and just like beating me at pool!

As you all know Im a pretty cool guy (stop laughing). I think its about time i gave some people some glory and fame by revealing who I consider the 10 best/sexy/most entertaining people on my msn/ICQ/Xfire list. A lot of people were near misses so dont be mad with me but i felt 25 or 20 people too many. Ive decided to just rank them 10-1 in this entry and give each one a entry of there own.

10 -Legend

9 - Desi

8 - Havana Club

7 - Laffer

6 - Skullyhead

5 - Anya

4 - Late

3 - Schiljo

1 - chrissi/Whiteshimmer

Richard on his knees

Right as you may know im 17. This means that I'm applying to university at the moment. The last date I can apply by is January 16th.

This is the course I want to do at my first choice university (for kurpters and ravens benefit as laffer/kami have already seen) <http://www.abertay.ac.uk/Courses/CDetails.cfm?RID=1&CID=185>

The points requirement is 280 which is near impossible to get from my current studies the highest I can get is 300 but thats 3 A's (kurpter might know of this stuff - others dont worry. Basically I know i will be slightly short on points requirement (failing maths last year really screwed things up and we are made to do a subject that no university accepts called General Studies but never mind). This leaves me with basically 1 option to have relevant experience. I know not many other students going for the places will have experience in C or C++ given there 'toughness' so if i excel and even have something to show them then I should stand out.

Basically this is a request for any help in learning the langauages and having any relevant experience towards the course.

Laffer has already offered to help me learn langauages and help him work on Midnight BSD with him and whom ever else will be working on it.

Im very serious about going to this university (basically the MIT/Oxford for computer games) the course holds the highest points requirement in the whole university. You may think that basically 3 monthes to learn such a language/s is impossible but im willing to try, I have a friend who is also wanting to learn language (C++ probably) and me and him competing against each other will make me want to get better.

Any help will be repayed

ICQ'ing sport of the horny

Id like to comment on the sport known as ICQ'ing.

I downloaded ICQ because a guy I watched while scouting for talent, the boring kind- ET, not Ladies :).

Anyway I install it and added the guy. Fast forward couple of hours. Oh whats this i see, it was a blinking icon in the toolbar. Someone sending me a message that is not on my list, alright Ill be polite and answer. Turns out this was a german girl (one of many). I left my computer on downloading. I got next morning nice and early 6am and find another new person wanting to talk to me and guess where they were from.....Germany. This kept happening everytime I connected to the internet, a floodgate of german women knocking on my laptop :)

I thought Im going to have alook myself and started searching for german girls, and it must be said I'm moving to germany as soon as possible if all the girls are like this.

Reasons for this behaviour

-German girls like english men

-German men are :0

-I'm a great guy (german girls said this not me)

-German girls want guys with dicks (laffers explanation)

This is a worrying trend which I embrace fully :)

Next for me in my ICQ'ing career is Czech Republic I think after talking with Schiljo (of =TA=) he says the beer is cheap, the women are plentiful, and the men ugly :)

Choice

Wow just like to say hello, im Richard the adopted lovechild of Laffer and Raven (Luke and Cayrn) :).

D.O.B - 23/11/87

Location - Rothbury, England

As you'll notice by my date of birth its my birthday next month, wooh. My 18th birthday at that. Last year I went to Tenerife (Spanish island off African Coast) with my mum, sister and mums boyfriend. It was good and I now have a preference for winter sun, especially as we have very cold winters where I live in England, but anyway.

I was thinking yesterday/today about what I should do, they has been 2 things I wanted to do for some time but due to fininical restrictions ie being poor, I couldnt do them. These are

- a)watching Manchester United (football team) whom I have supported all my life but have yet to see live.
- b)see Tiesto (DJ) live in concert.

Now I was looking into this and Tiesto has a European Tour in mid November, and Manchester United play Vilarallel (Spanish Team -wrong spelling) in the champions league on the 22nd. So this means I could go and see Tiesto in say prague (Czech Republic)then fly home and watch the football, but this would mean Im in England on my birthday which isnt the best situation. The other alternative is watch the football on the 22nd and fly out the USA for to watch him play in America this would give me the chance to visit my adpoted parents (laffer/raven) as Tiesto is playing in Boston, Detroit, Chicago, and New York. Of course taking this option would be hideoulsy expensive but then agin its my 18th so...
