meh...

"Life's good"... Well, not at this time! Maybe next month...

The problem is, that I have sooooo much to do in sooooo little time and I've become bad at Zero hour... My head hurts :S

Things I still have to do:

- * Make homework
- * Update journal
- * Prepare a presentation
- * Work out new strats in ZH
- * Keep my friends
- * Do more homework
- * Walk the newspaper
- * Go to athletics

...

And all this in 2 days 0_0;

Well, good luck to myself :P

Cya all!

My first blog

lets see how does this wo...Ohw! I am allready writing!

Ok, dear reader.

Welcome to my life. This is your last chance to turn back. You still want to read by life?...Sure...Have it your way.

At the time of writing, you have missed 16 years, 126 days, 10 hours and 49 minutes of my life. I will save that for you ;)

Well, because this is my first blog,

I will tell who brought me into this:

My good old pall evanbraakensiek. (<http://www.justjournal.com/users/evanbraakensiek>)

Thanks a lot! :D

He said that I could write my crap here in stead of on his msn. Unfortunatly for you, I have allready told my crap to him and I am a bit tired to write it all over again. And it is allmost sleepy time for me here in The Netherlands.

Have a nice day ^_^

(in celebration of my first blog entry ever, I will say "bye" in 10 countries! YaaaaaY! :D )

Bye, cya, doei, au revoir, tschüs, adiós, adeus, arrivederci, , , .
