Skydiving 5/3/11

Best experience. Ever. Jumping of a plane at 13,500ft from the ground. Free falling for 7,500ft: Intense, adrenaline rush moment; the world seems so silent at this moment, it feels like nothing really matters anymore because all u hear is silence; even when ur screaming ur lungs out, u can hear nothing; such peace. Looking at the altimeter and baby-waving twice after. Pulling the rip chord when we're at 6,000ft and opening the parachute. Looking at the God's creation, again, i'm amazed. The green mountains, awesome landscape, tiny tiny cars of different colors, storm in front from view way above; what more can i ask for. Enjoying the whole breeze and freedom up there. Definitely worth it.
