Whatever you are, be a good one!

So, Love is very confusing sometimes. How can someone say they like you, and be around you for a little while, acting as if everything is just fantastic!
How can he say that he's falling in love with me. How can he always want me around. Then one day, he quit all communication with me. I woke up with no text from him. (and there was always a text in the morning). I was so confused. I sat around all day thinking something was wrong, a car wreck, he got hurt at work.
I thought of everything. I decided, it was time to have a friend call his phone to see if he answered, cause it would be a number he didnt know. My friend calls me back, He says " I called him & he answered, i asked for the wrong person, he just told me i had the wrong number". I thought to myself, is this really possible?. What did i do wrong? Is it me? Or was it him? So, for the next two weeks i still went through days thinking about "why". He left me with no explanation. All i could think is that i did something wrong. That it was me! I hurt him or something somehow. So, a couple more days go by. I get ony facebook to look at my news updates. "OMG!! no fucking way", i couldnt believe my eyes. It said he was in a relationship with another girl. Wow, so this is what it was all about. Instead of being a man and telling me, he let me wonder.
People just sometimes dont care about others feelings. This isn't the heartbreak hotel. I mean come on. The shit was ridiculous. Anyway, By time i found out, I had already knew we were over, So, it really wasn't that bad. Im glad he showed his true colors, before we got into a really serious relationship.
