No subject, really...

Does anyone like to fly? I like it...it's not really scary. I used to hate it, but not anymore. I fly to somewhere tomorrow, but I forget where. Well, everybody have a good day. I feel like being nice, and I just feel happy. If anyone else feels like this...GOOD! That's good. :-)

Bye!

ANYONE CAN COMMENT ON THIS!

Yes...anyone can comment on this journal 'entry'! I'm not even writing journal entries...I like to post stuff, is that so terrible? Just kidding. Happy summer, everybody! No more school...until September for me!

Reading

Does anyone have any good books to read? If anyone has a favorite book, please post it in the comments! I really need new books to read over the summer. By the way, has anyone read The Land? I'm supposed to read it, but it looks really boring. Anyways, if you can just post book names in the Comments...that would be great! Thanks!

Posting Stuff, Morning, etc.

I'm really nervous about posting stuff with the PRIVATE thing. Does that mean only you can read it? I hope so.

Well, today's off to a great start. I feel good...just a bit tired. Well, it's hard to stay asleep with planes taking off right above your head and practically next door to you at 7:00 when you're trying to sleep in! But I don't really sleep in, so what's the point.

See ya l8r.

Tags...???

What are the TAG thingies? I wonder. Well, if anyone wants to tell me what the TAG thing is, just tell me so on comments or whatever. Thanks!

So quiet

Sitting on top of a BOAT house really isn't supposed to be...quiet. It's supposed to be LOUD, you know, because, well, boats? It's pretty quiet, except for the neighbor's construction...yes, that gets REALLY annoying, but whatever.

planes and airports

does anyone live near an airport? is anyone interested in planes? i live by SNA/JWA airport. no it's not international but it should be-it's bigger than SYR in NY and that's even international! actually no its not. i wish we had some biggie planes flying out of JWA/SNA...i want 2 see the big ones like 747s, airbus a380s, planes like that. i do live kind of close to LAX and a flight path goes right over my house (i'm not sure from what airport, but i'm thinking LAX or possibly SFO) and a lot of huge planes fly over. if anyone lives by JWA/SNA let me know! they are also thinking of adding an extension to the terminal-some more gates because some of them you have to walk to your plane and let me tell you, it's a pain...yeah.

i love to travel. mainly just because of flying. i really love to fly. i have always wanted to actually fly with my own "wings" when i was little...but i loved my first plane trip, so there you go.

does anyone else like to fly? hate to fly? know really cool types of planes??

the airbus a380 is HUGE!! it's so kewl!! yee-haw (okay, i'm not a cowgirl...that was strange)
