Folding purse hooks - Designer Purse Hooks Are Functional and Trendy

Have you ever had the experience of racking your brain, trying to come up with a thoughtful gift to give your trendy, fashion-obsessed friend who already seems to have everything? Any girl that loves fashion loves purses. And any girl that loves purses is probably adverse to the idea of setting her beloved handbag on the floor, or leaving it hanging on the back of her chair where people can knock into it. Nothing can ruin a girl's day faster than having her favorite purse destroyed because a careless waiter spilled a drink on it. The best gift idea for any fashionista is purse hooks. Purse hooks, also sometimes called handbag hangers, are about the size of a compact and allow you to hang your purse right off the edge of the table, allowing easy access to your belongings and keeping your purse clean and in pristine condition.

Of course, for the stylish person, ordinary purse hooks are not good enough. A stylish handbag demands equally stylish accessories. Thankfully, designer purse hooks are available in an array of colors and styles. You can get them embossed with initials, purchase varying colors to match your varying purses, or go for wild designs like crocodile or leopard print. In addition to being visually appealing, many designer purse hooks also offer additional functionality. For example, you can find purse hooks that open up revealing compacts and mirrors, so that when lunch is over and your handbag is safely over your shoulder, you can quickly check your teeth before leaving the restaurant with an embarrassing piece of spinach stuck between your front teeth.

Folding purse hooks come with instructions, and are extremely easy to use. Simply unfold the hook so that it is twisted to 90 degrees from the designer head. Place the head on the top of the edge of the table, with the hook hanging beneath the table facing away from you. Then you can place your handbag on the hook beneath the table, where it will be out of the way and safe from spills. A good purse is an investment in your wardrobe and one of the first accessories the eye catches, so it only makes sense to protect your purchase with an affordable purse hook. Purse hooks are a functional trend that is sure to catch on, so be the first of your friends to use a designer purse hook.

Purse Hooks â?? So Simple, It's Genius

Most women wouldn't be caught dead without their favorite purse nearby. They keep everything they need in it. It's both a hip accessory and a security blanket. Many women feel naked without their purses. But when it comes to sitting down and having a meal or a cup of coffee, knowing where to put your purse can become a dilemma. It takes up too much room if you put it on the table, but it'll get dirty if you put it on the floor. Fortunately, there is an easy solution to this problem:

purse hooks

. Purse hooks can keep your bag off the floor while leaving you plenty of room on the table.

Designer purse hooks are cute as well as handy. Instead of being a simple, utilitarian design, it makes sense that a tool used to hang a fashion accessory should also be a fashion accessory. You can find purse hooks in different colors, finishes, and even purse hooks with bling. That way, you're not only keeping your purse off the floor, but you're also making a statement about fashion: it's too important not to incorporate into every possible thing. Design matters, even for seemingly inconsequential accessories.

The way a designer tote hook works is simple: you simply place one end of the hook on the edge of the table and then hang your bag from the other end. The hook is curved so that the weight of your bag is what keeps it attached firmly to the table. It'll stay put until you decide it's time to go and you take your bag off the hook. At that point, the hook easily comes loose from the table, and you can toss it in your bag and get on the move. It's small and portable; you can just keep it in your purse at all times. It's so simple, it's ingenious!

There really is no

handbag accessory that's both this functional and fashionable at the same time. Working women love them because they're so portable and easy to use. Fashionistas love them because they keep their adorable bags subtly on display at all times. Neat freaks love them because they keep their purses from getting dirty. Any woman who carries a purse will love them just because they're so convenient. If you're a woman on the go (and most women are), then you need to have one of these in your purse.

Louis Vuitton bag accessory - Purse Hooks Gifts For You and Friends

Purse hooks

are handbag accessories used to suspend your purse from a table top, and have been designed to make a really great impression, with crystals and chic designs. Sometimes you're looking for that perfect

Louis

Vuitton bag accessory

for that hard-to-shop for person in your life. Bear in mind not all purse hooks are created equal. You may have found handbag hooks that look over-the-top and prefer something simpler. You may also come across some that have workmanship that leaves something to be desired. And when you're looking for a gift to give to someone special, it's important to give something of high-workmanship and aesthetic appeal. You want

handbag hangers

that will last, not just the test of time, but the more difficult test of fashion relevancy.

Whether it is for someone else or yourself, a must last, just like your handbag. You may have the most coveted, most chic handbag slung around your arm, but if its workmanship is shoddy and you have pieces of it falling off, its style will wear out very rapidly no matter how chic it is. An important, and at times overlooked part of fashion involves the workmanship of a given dress, piece of jewelry, handbag or handbag accessory. Purse hooks need to be physically reliable by design. Their functionality and aesthetic value go hand in hand because if one characteristic is missing, then what we have is most likely an unsuccessful handbag accessory.

Louis

Vuitton purse hook

When your purse hooks securely holds your name brand purse and looks fantastic doing it, then we have success. It's the same principle with your outfit. Let's say you found the perfect dress for your next big outing with your date; you take it home, try it on, and conclude that you look excellent in it. You go the event and have the time of your life. Some of the reasons why is because not only did your dress look great, it functioned reliably (keeping you from falling victim to the dreaded wardrobe malfunction we sometimes see happen to celebrities at red carpet events) when you walked from your car to the venue, break it down on the dance floor, and stole away home at midnight in your Cinderella stagecoach like in a princess. So when you're in the market for a purse hook, make sure you look for two important things: the way it looks and the way it works.

handbag hangers - The Complete Look: Fashion Purse Hooks For Your Handbag

Your trend-setting handbag could easily be thought of your most precious possession when out and about; it carries your money, cell, and other important items (such as luxury

purse hook hangers

!) you want to have on you at all times. Even more than your jacket, or pair of designer sunglasses, your purse or handbag is your best friend whether you are indoors or on the boardwalk. So the question is: if you wouldn't scrunch up your coat and crush it behind your back on your chair, or (gasp) lay it on the ground by your feet, why would you treat your handbag so cruelly? You need to treat your best friend with kindness and finesse. This is where

purse hooks

come in.

Everyone knows carrying a branded designer handbag conveys class and style, however, it can have the complete opposite effect if you are seen mistreating or neglecting your prized possession. Imagine a owner of a limited edition Bentley who never washed his or her luxury car, and let clutter pile up in the passenger and backseat. Not taking good care of a Bentley would take away from its elegance and pride. When you use

handbag hangers

to hold your bag up in style, you maximize its value and beauty.

Whether you own a Hermes, Chanel, Lanvin or any other type of designer bag, there is one thing that you have to remember: a good bag does not belong on the floor, so why should you allow it to rest there? Along with the glamour of accessorizing your purse or handbag with fabulous-looking designer purse

hooks

, you are investing in functionality as well; purse hooks not only hold your hand bags in place for easy access, they function as an essential part of any woman's collection of fashion items: the mirror!

A Mon Mode luxury bag hook with a compact mirror can save your bag from fashion faux pas and having its glamour diminished otherwise. These great hand bag hangers come in different designs, using different luxe materials and in different patterns like crocodile, lizard, and python. For additional information, visit purse hooks - Designer Purse Hooks At Lupus LA Hollywood Bag Ladies Luncheon

Purse hooks! These great handbag hangers come in really eye-catching, sleekly modern designs and are sure make a big impression anywhere you go. Celebrating handbags for a good cause, women from all over the Los Angeles area congregated in style at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel for the Lupus LA Hollywood Bag Ladies Luncheon. The highlight of the afternoon was the silent auction, where high-end designer purse hooks were placed inside designer handbags previously owned by talented beauties such as Katy Perry, Gwyneth Paltrow, Sharon Stone, and Jennifer Aniston, and auctioned off to the very lucky highest bidders. Notable guests included Meredith Monroe, Joanna and Marta Krupa, Christine Devine, Carolyn Folks, Gloria Allred, and Bryon Allen. The luncheon also included a Neiman Marcus fashion show! Us fashionistas believe it's always in our best interest to support a wonderful cause, in style of course! Stay tuned this week for more photos of designer handbag hangers, this event and more!

From Prada to Gucci and Versace, interestingly embellished bags have been spotted across the map lately. Whether they're covered in fun studs, adorned with tassels, or covered in zippers, bags have become increasingly funky. One of our favorite collections is the one from Prada's Spring 2012 RTW collection, shown in Milan. The adorable pastel bags were covered in studs, which gave them a fabulous edge. Touted down the runway by models wearing feminine yet urban creations, they're perfect for fashionistas from Manhattan to LA!

Another trendy embellishment is tassels, as seen in Gucci's Spring 2012 RTW show, also in Milan. Gucci went a different route, using chain handles, tassels, and gold lamination to achieve a look of glamour mixed with a fashionable edge. Gucci's mixture of embellishments was an utter success, the bags are fashion-forward, pretty, and incredibly covetable.

Our final embellishment isn't so much an embellishment as it is a feature: skins. Rather than sticking with plain old leather, skins like crocodile and lizard are back, and in a big way for designer handbags and purse hooks. We're sticking them in with cool embellishments because the skin itself is an embellishment. It adds glamour to an outfit just like metal hardware does, and when you add the two together, along with different leathers, it's almost too much chic to handle! Fendi, Chloe, Prada, Ferragamo, and Louis Vuitton offered up just a few of our favorite mix-and-match skin creations, and we can't wait to get our hands on as many as possible!
