High school drama is fun :P

Why is it that everytime a book is written about high school , its always girls with the drama , never guys ?? Its always about females taking other females men or just beingq jealous ! Just like in the book im readingq "

Harsh Pink

", there's drama going on with females just because there jealous ! If there were ever a high school with no female drama then school just wouldnt be fun ! I find it amusingq which is why I stick to hanging out with the guys ! In my book, theres drama going on just because of the cheerleadingq squad ! I dont find that important enough to sabotage someone's reputation . ! Everywhere is gonna have drama but why is it always females starting it ? I ask this question alot because im just not that type of qirl ! In the book, most qirls try to be friends with just one qirl just because shes rich and popular !

So what
!! Having money doesnt make you special ! But I guess I should realize , its just a book . !

Do you think about basketball is awesome? I thhink its awesome because its a game that involve jribbling a ball while runing and shooting the ball in the hoop at the same time. its all about using your mind and skills to win the game and use a plan that would be great enough to fool the players.

Did you know the Lakers were in the championship? They have been to the championships about 20+ times over the past few years, more than any other team in the NBA. A lot of the times they appeared in the Finals against their rivals the Boston Celtics.

Everyone Aint Loyal

It's crazy on how you can't even rely on family or friends. Ella can be the most grimmest person you can ever meet. She is having a lust for her SISTER's boyfriend Peter. Now and days you can't depend on NOONE because someone can turn their back on you in ANY situation.

- Well my book is

You Dont Know Me, and i always say that when a book is about a teenager something bad is probably going to go on with them. This is true in my book, and i find it kind of crazy because it reminds me alot of life.

Well one of the crazy parts is when he went on a date with one of the most prettiest girls in his school. Her name is glory halleluyah and he got to ask her out and she said yes. Well the day of the date they went out to the game and when the game ended they walked off to her house but he didnt want to go inside but she insisted. So he went in and she took him down to the basement, and when they got downstairs she sat him on the sofa and she wanted to take his clothes off, and so she took off his top and thats it when a big boom hits the door and a loud voice says gloria you better be down there alone. Now John is very scared and is like i gotta go but she doesnt let him and what i find crazy is that i know ppl that been in that situation but not that serious just where they are kind of peer pressured to go with the girl. Well soon there will be more about my story. ;]

I want to get out !!?

Your "FRIEND"

kissed the boy you think you don't like, but then you start feeling jealousy! How long do you think you go w/o any type of electronics. Clios dad made it clear to her that she couldn't use the computer that was on the ship. Imagine going out to see with no phone or internet where you can communicate with the people you <3. You're out sea w/ people you hardly know and your always having drama. Noone with who you can relate to and not getting along well with the people your with. You can sense that theres something being kept from you by everyone.

Feeling Lonely

what should you do when you are feeling lonely? Im reading a book about a boy who's always feeling lonely. The boys name is jesse, he spends most of his time alone.

I think jesse should spend more time with his friends. I dont undertand why he always wants to be alone. Maybe if he went to the movies or did something fun with a friend he wouldnt feel as lonely.

I think is sad that jesse's family never has time for him. I would say jesse needs to find himself or even a girlfriend to show him sum love <3. In some situations jesse reminds me of a friend i had. I feel so sad for jesse :(.

Okay, so my book is The Rescue by Nicholas Sparks.
I was absolutely excited to pick up this book because its from my

FAVORITE
author who wrote

The Notebook and
A Walk to Remember. I LOVE these movies.

In the first couple of chapters you can feel the adrenaline rush through you. i mean like its the most excited thing that can happen. It was about all the volunteers at the fire station, plus men from all over the town, on the search for a missing boy named Kyle.
After the accident, Kyle had wonder off into the swamp. So think about it. It may not seem like a big deal, but the FOUR year old kid was ALONE, in the middle of the SWAMP, at NIGHT, during a STORM. just imagine the pain
his mother was going Through.

Speaking about his mother, Denise Holton was a teacher just until she had Kyle(Apperently she loved that job; i dont understand why but okay); then all her attention went to him and his unknown disablity. Weird thing, you would think that the Doctors she went to will find out what is wrong, but
NO! They want to put poor Denise into so much pain after telling her so many things that they

THOUGHT
was wrong with Kyle. Ugh, they are so dumb. i mean that can't even figure it out themselves!!

Anyways, aside from the stupid doctors, Denise mets a guy named Taylor McAden. now since they both live in a small town called Edenton, of course the people in town knows everything and anything about everyone else. i just think its them being gossipers. So as you would guess, they are the ones who would fall in love.

it's real cute how they flirt with each other and stuff.
but the cutest thing was that Talyor was the guy who pulled Denise out of her car after she had crashed.

FATE

Do you play video games to much? If you do just turn off what you're playing and go outside to enjoy the fresh air. Enjoying fresh air can be better playing games you can have fun with your friends and go places. Going places like to the park, museum, mall, or the movies. Some of my friends just like to stay home all day and play games but they need to know that life isn't forever so you got to have fun while living.

have you ever have a thing for one of your close friend but just wasn't brave enough to say something. well Beth in my book Summer Boys has a thing for her best friend George but just to scared to say something. i honestly think she should tell him how she feel instead of always commenting on how he looks & dreaming about him ALL the time.

The little girl pays no mind to he brother. In the bus she tells everybody that she has twinkies that her father gave her. When there at chool and it's time for recess, the little girl come's running to her brother and tells him that some girl took her candy.

she wanted her brother to kill the other little girl who stole her candy, but instead her brother plays a prank on the other girl. I think is crazy

First Date

If you were on your first date, what would you spend most of your time talking about. .? Would it be about your past

? Your

everyday life
? or Just keep it simple and not

drive
the guy away?

Well Denise decided to pour all her feelings on her first date with Taylor. She cried and everything. she was just telling him the way she felt about her son having this problem and how she delt with it.

You would think that if you were the one boring the guy with all this and making your life seem depressing

that the guy will try to leave at any chance he got. but not Taylor. he's a real sweetie and actually listened to it all and didnt judge her one bit. thats sweet of him =]

because he will be named the new lord of shadows and he will bring pain to all humans and vampires. I think that if Darren try to find away to save the human and win the battle he will save hissself from beging the lord of the shadows. Like when me and my brother were mad at each other he tried to get people to jump me i used my mind and found away to get out of the problem by talking to my brother. Darren can solve his problem by talking to Steve and seeing why he's doing this. This part of the book is all about doing something good but good does not come back, evil does.

- I like my book for a few reasons, but the main reason why is because it connects a lot to life especially teenagers. The reason why I say this is because of the events that are happening in my story. Also I like my book because it takes place in school and I like that because it makes me see the POV of a person who doesn't have as many friends and compare to someone like me who has a lot of friends. Lastly that I like my book because it's a real good book it keeps you thinking on what's gonna happen next, and it can surprise you at times. Well I recommend people to read this book ( You Don't Know Me )
