School

Well...I'm at school. And things are goin gok. Right now it is second hour, and I'm really bored. Because my first two hours are BS hours. Which means that I do whatever I want in each hour.

Of course tomorrow I'll probably be doing Chemistry homework second hour, because I have a demonstrative speech due in first. *sigh* I would have gone today, but these two guys with guitars went first and took too long.

My second hour teacher...I think he's gay....but he talks too much, and that's annoying.

Anyway, I'll keep ya posted.
