just a little bit about my life...

hmm...what is there to know about me...? well, it's the internet, so that means no personal info, such as names, addresses, or ages...so i guess we'll start with personality...

I like swimming, track, reading, hanging out with my friends, laughing, smiling, bubble baths, and being with my loved ones. music is my life, practically, and some of my faves are probably the fray, nickelback, rascal flats, carrie underwood, 3 doors down, and some others...i'm a country/rock/pop kind of girl. rap and techno just really isn't me. i adore shopping. especially at old navy, aeropostale, american eagle, limited too is kind of okay, justice, rave girl, kohls, delia's...and recently a friend of mine went to macy's and came back with some really cute stuff. who would have thought? macy's! wink wink o, and i would practically die if movies had not been created on this earth. i mean, seriously, pirates of the caribbean has to be, like, the best movie ever made right? i watch a lot of tv reality shows too. american idol, 2 & a half men, big brother, beauty and the geek, the hills, dancing with the stars, lost, the amazing race, and friends are just a few of them.

oh well. i guess i'd better go. i'm kind of new to this whole journal thing, so if you have tips feel free to speak your mind! more entries to come!
