Introductions

Hello, this is Serenade (duh but some people are truly idiots, maybe you're not one of them and yah, I can be an idiot sometimes too so don't worry your pretty little head). Let's get the formatting explained.

Anything writtin on the left side like

so

nfklds;ajf kda

is story mode. And on the right side like so

jfkdlasfj dksa

is thought mode. Got it?

Good. Oh yah, and I might randomly put things in the middle like right now but that is mostly for poetry mode, which I probably won't go into often. Haven't written a poem in a good long time. Good?

Good.

So this is bye till later.

Don't know who I'm talking to because nobody is going to ever read this. Oh well.
