love is pointless when there is no love in your life then it is pointless. i will never like anyone ever. i hate my life because there is no love in my life and i want there to be love in my life! I hate when people talk about their boyfriends, or girlfriend because i have never had true love. I don't think i will ever have real love so i'm screwed. i want to lay somewhere and fall into darkness because no one would ever know that i'm gone, because i have no one that loves me. and i hate everyone who talks like they know about love and how they love their boy/girl friend i can't stand the i hate it so much!!!!

hate

what is hate i believe that there is only one emotion, darkness, and alone, lonely. i don't think hate is an emotion. i am in darkness.
